Strategic Plan

2024 - 2026

To improve social and emotional wellbeing.

Transforming lives through yarning with purpose, connecting to meaning and counseling to improve self.

Who we are

NINI is an Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisation (ACCO) dedicated to promoting self-determination and providing culturally safe treatments, trauma-informed approaches, strength-based interventions, and therapeutic services to Indigenous people and organisations.

We deliver services to Indigenous people, particularly through culturally safe interventions. Our service delivery is culturally safe, holistic, private, and confidential.

How we help

Many clients are prompted to begin their journey with us needing support and guidance because they have perpetrated violence, abuse or controlling behaviours, or they are victim survivors of it.

As specialists with the lived experience and training to deliver culturally appropriate approaches we improve lives—aiming for rapid practical wins and deeper holistic change.

Proudly 100% Aboriginal Owned & Operated

NINI has Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) status with ATO.

NINI has identified 5 key CTG targets where we can make the biggest difference.

Target 10

Adults are not overrepresented in the criminal justice system

Target 11

Young people are not overrepresented in the criminal justice system

Our service delivery strategically focuses on these key areas

DFSV	Justice Reinvestment	Closing The Gap	Cultural Safety
Prevention	Place-Based	Formal Partnerships and Shared	Community First
Early intervention	Data-Informed	Decision Making	Community Led
Trauma-informed	Collaboration and systems thinking	Building the Community-Controlled Sector	Community controlled
Lived experiences	Community Development (Crime Prevention)	Transforming Government	Self-Determination
Narrative Therapy	Evidence-Based	Organisations	Diversity
Collaboration		Shared Access to Data and Information at a Regional Level	Respectful
			Social Inclusion
			The journey counts
			The Story is important

We empower individuals, families and our communities to get stronger and safer.

Target 13

Families and households are safe

Target 14

People enjoy high levels of social and emotional wellbeing

Target 17

People have access to information and services enabling participation in informed decision-making regarding their own lives
